Presentation Speech. A galaxy of beauty and manhood, gathered last night gathered last night do honor to the ball given by the last mers of the Pioche Engine and Hose Company. The hall was beautifully decorated with evergreeus, flags, mirrors and the paraphernalia usually found in such places. The music was sweet and enlivening and all seemed enraptured mid the beauty of the scene. At eleven o'clock precisely, Miss Ida Holland, on the part of the donor, pre-sented the boys with an American flag, the cost of which was $300, and the pre-

the cost of which was delivered in a clear speech which was delivered in a clear nd concise manner.
To the Officers and Members of the

To the Officers and Members of the Procise Hose and Exgine Company—Gentlemen: In behalf of Mrs. H. B. Camp, the generous and public spirited donor, I am delegated to present this beautiful banner to you. Your gallantry and promptness in the past in protecting the property interests of this city have given you honorable distinction, in acknowledgment of which valuable services the presentation is made. It is hoped that in the hour of duty, when, all unmindful of self, you brave danger in saving from the hour of duty, when, all unminded of self, you brave danger in saving from wreck the fortunes of your fellow-citzens—nobly, and without thought of reward, giving your services to the public—this event will be remembered as one of the many evidences that the gratitude of this entire community is given you for past services, while it holds in certain expecservices, while it holds in certain expec-tancy of its being merited a crown of honor for you in the future. Accept the symbolic gift, and with it the respect and best wishes of the giver; in your keeping its colors will never be sullied. S. W. DeLacy, the President of the company, upon the reception of the banner made the following reply: Laddes and Gentlemen—Respected Mass: The pleasant duty devolves upon

Miss: The pleasant duty devolves upon me to receive in behalf of my brother members of Pioche Engine and Hose Company, this flag, a pleasing and cost-ly tribute of the liberal Mrs. Camp's es-teem. Though not gifted in address teem. Though not gifted in address suitable to answer your expressions of approval and praise, I deeply feel the honor, which the generous giver now confers upon us; and for the company, as for myself, I most truly and sincerely, through you, thank her.

To be useful has been our wish; henceforth the remembrance of this hour, shall, more than ever, strengthen our de-sire to be of service to the public.

sire to be of-service to the public.

Called together as it were a cymric growth amid the wastes primeval of Nevada, this star-spangled emblem, even here, whispers to an admiring assemblage its story. Here, as in all countries, unfolding mutably informs the beholder that under its shade, lives liberty and human equality. For nearly a century it has led the van where genius and in-dustry walked, never failing to recompense energy and worth.

Amid the busier haunts of men expressions of local pride ever accompany a gathering which in any manner commemorates the budding of our American nationality. Thus, we as representatives, here tender our ovations to the founders of our Republic. Accepting this tribute as a memento of its greatness and worth, it shall ever be an incidement on our part to emulate in our citement on our part to emulate in our humble way their unselfish example. As decendants of those who died to give

ALMOST A FIRE. - Yesterday morning officers McKee and Woodroff, while perambulating lower Main street, they discovered smoke issuing from a canvasroofed cabin, opposite Pritchard's Fast Freight depot. Hastily reaching the Freight depot. Hastily reaching the seene they broke open the door to find the inside enveloped in flame; immediately exerting themselves they succeeded in arresting the progress of the fire. On the floor in one corner of the cabin lay the owner stupefied with liquor, and almost unable to help himself. Dragging him out a vigorous and well-directed application of boot leather brought him partly to consciousness. The loss of his bedding and blankets, together with a new roof for the shanty, may induce him in future to put out the fire in his dudeen ere retiring to the arms of Morpheus.

BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.-The Board of County Commissioners met yesterday in regular session. A large number of bills were allowed, but we have not the space to publish them in this issue. No other business was transacted. The Board will be in session

COLONEL C. A. SUMNER, the phonographer of the Raymond-Hermes case, was so indisposed yeaterday afternoon as to be compelled to leave his table. He was much better at bed-time, and will probably resume his duties to-day.

Monar, April 7.

Col. W. H. Raymond called for the plaintiffs—Have seen a copy of the consolidation contract; have seen it as recorded in book corded in book A; never saw the orig corded in book A; never saw the original; had access to all the papers of the Ray-mond & Ely Company; made thorough search for the consolidation contract, but couldn't find it; last looked for it last April; have no knowledge where it is. [Thomas Box, Stephen Sherwood and F. M. Box were called for the plaintiffs and swen in regard to the consolidation and sworn in regard to the consolidation contract. They all testified to the formation and existence of the original con-tract of consolidation and to its not being their possession or under their control.]
Joseph E. Patten called for plaintiffs.

I put the record book in the safe after Mr. Raymond gave it to me; there were many old papers in the safe; can't tell that I saw the original consoliation contract; Colonel Raymond or Henry Raymond wrote to me to give Mr. Perley Anymond wrote to me to give Mr. Periey, of Periey & Rives, all the mining papers.

Cross-examined—I examined many of the papers given to Perley & Rives; know what some of them were; think they did not refer to mining locations; I afterwards took the papers, etc., back home?

home! J. N. Vandemark called—I have a copy of the consolidation contract; it was copied from book A; have it with me; it is correct. [Gives it to the attorney, and it is offered in evidence.]

Cross-examined—I didn't compare the copy with the original with any one; made the comparison myself; the copy was made in the fall of 1870; don't remember that there were interlineations

Cross-examination resumed—I left in the latter part of July, 1864, to go to New York; work was going on about the time I left; got back in September, 1865, I think; Sherwood, Box and others was the defendants waiver of admissibility of evidence recovery. time I left; got back in September, 1865, I think; Sherwood, Box and others were in the camp when I left; don't remember the exact day I left; it was after the 20th; don't think any of the Panaca shaft had been sunk July 2, and but little had been done on the northeast cut; a little digging had been done in various places in trying to trace the ledge; the shaft was down 18 feet when I left; when I left there was a body of ore where the cut is; when I came back that ore had been taken out.

reside at Bullionville; am clerk for the Raymond & Ely Mining Company; was clerk August 1, 1871; believe my name was used in locating the Hermes claim; learned the fact from Colonel Lightner; have since conveyed it; conveyed it at Colonel Lightner's request; received no consideration for the property.

Louis Tardos called for plaintiffs—I have resided in Pioche two years; am clerk for the Raymond & Ely Mining Company; was here August 1, 1871; was located in the Hermes location; didn't know anything about it when I was located; I deeded the property at Colonel Lightner's request; received no consideration in conveying the property.

Judge Mesick moved to strike out the evidence of Eastlan and Tardos, on the Tardos be stricken out.

Judge Garber replied, saying that they roposed to prove to the Court that Mr. erley could not, while acting as attor-by for the Raymond & Ely Company, came and create interests adverse to thos of the corporation employing him.

Judge Hardy said their title was perfectly good, but they proposed to show that the defendants have no right to assail it, good or bad.

Colonel Thornton said the argument, on their side should take its regular course—that they would argue it and produce their authorities, whether the de-fendants chose or not to fortify themselves on the opposite side.

Mr. Perley said they would not argue the question on their side.

APTERNOON SESSION

Recess.

Judge Hardy opened the argument in favor of admitting proof of the alleged illegality and fraud by which the Hermes smoke 'tis needless to say that their efficiency saved us recording a terrible conflagration.

Served Him Right.—A man with a marked countenance (he had his left eye black, with part of his nose mashed) was yesterday heard regretting the lossiof his brightest hours. In heart-throbbing and expectant appeals he plead with a verdant to loan him a half to get a meal, Greeny, cestatic to relieve the burden of the poor man's distress, passed him a piece. The recipient tried to speak, but could not; his heart was either too full or his stomach too empty. Thus he stood silent for a moment; then, clasping the waiting angel, asked him if he wouldn't take a little something to drink. Half an hour later greeny saw his constituent peacefully sitting in the mud near the Postoffice. And thereby hangs a tale.

Board of County Commissioness. fondant, who received said deed while acting as agent for the party of whom she was heir. The agent's deed was set asside as having been fraudulently obtained. [Complaint handed to His Honor to compare with the authority being read—8 Abbott, p. 225.] This was the case of a sale of town property in Auburn, N. Y., in which McCarty is ejected from property the possession of which he had fraudulently acquired while acting as agent for plaintiff. The complaint was based and sustained on equitable ground. Defendant demurred, the third ground of demurrer being that plaintiff averred seizin in fee and must rely on the strength of his own title and not prove fraudulency of title in defendant. The titles fraudulently obtained through our agents? In our complaint we allege seizin in fee, and we have the right to sustain it before the jury. There is somewhere a remedy against an agent bartering away the rights of his employer. It appears that Mr. Perley was attorney for and Colonel Lightner superintendent of the Raymond & Ely Company, and Easterlan, Tardos and another, employes; and while acting as agents and representatives of that company, they lay claim in their own right to some of its most valuable property. (17 New York, p. 270., quoted.) This was an action in ejectment, in which the plaintiff sets up the alleged pretended tute of defendant. The question arose in that case, as it has ansen in this, whether the plaintiff could arisen in this, whether the plaintiff could attack, while asserting a fee-simple in himself, the fraudulent title of defendant. The decision was in the affirma-tive. Now, an objection to evidence is governed by the same rule as an objec-tion to the pleading itself. That an equitable claim can be urged against a legal claim is a well established rule. (Reads-from 2 Kernan, p. 266.) Here defendant chaim is a well established rile. (Reads from 2 Kerman, p 266.) Here defendant is allowed to interpose an equitable title against a legal title in plaintaff. We have and assert in this case both the legal and equitable title was both the legal and equitable title was would concede their right to assert it against our legal claim. (Reads from 14 New York, p. 511.) Here it is ruled that where two causes of action are set up, one legal and the other equitable, both arising out of the same transaction, they may be joined in one and the same action, the Court being unanimous in this ruling. (Reads 25 Cal., p. 277.) Here, teo, a junction of legal and equitable grounds of complaint in the same action is fully sustained. (Reads 17 Cal., p. 487.) (Attorney speaks of the sameness of the Nevada and California statutes.) This is a case in which it is held, also, that different causes of action may be joined in the same complaint when growing out of the same member that there were interlineations in the record.

The copy was objected to as evidence, because it does not appear to have been signed by all the parties interested, is irrelevant, and the loss of the original has a relevant, and the loss of the original has not been sufficiently shown, etc. The objections are substantially the same as those against the admission of the copy of the Panaca location.

Objections overruled, and exceptions entered by defendants.

Objections overruled, and exceptions entered by defendants. cutered by defendants.

Judge Garber reads the copy of the consolidation contract.

Direct examination of Vandemark resumed—Under that contract we did 90 or 100 days' work.

Cross-examination resumed—I left in specific remedy of a single action.

As regards the defendants' waiver of argument on the question pending—the admissibility of evidence proving the fraudulency of defendants' title—authority was read to show that defendants' remedy, under the statute, was in demurrer to the complaint. (Reads p. 153, 23d Pickering; also 2d Johnston, p. 369.) Here it is held that objection to jurisdiction could only have been made in the way suggested—by demurrer to the complaint. We have already spent three weeks in this litigation, and now, at this late day, an objection is urged to the face of our complaint, which, with their eyes wide open, they have regularly answered.

He concluded by saying equity will not allow error from one who is acting in a fiduciary capacity, and law built upon that principle is universally admitted. Equity and law alike say an agent shall Equity and law alike say an agent shall not fraudulently make way with the property in his hands which belongs to a thousand owners. [Reads a number of authorities, showing that an agent shall not use his knowledge or position in any way to secure to his private benefit the interests of his employer.] If there were no fraud in the Hermes location, no charge of fraud it could not be made humble way their unselfish example. As decendants of those who died to give as this flag and liberty, we should ever regard and assist, nor turn a deaf ear to the constant appeal which every wind wafts us—aid to establish throughout other lands, God's most precious gift, human rights; thus perpetuating the virtues and teachings of such men as Washington and Jefferson. This gift, though beautiful, even to magnificence in texture and finish, is still surpassed by the impressiveness which eits colors call up in retrospect.

Viewing it as a hardinger of confidence, and proud of the halo surrounding it, I feel assured in saying for my brothers of Pioche Engine and Hose Company that its fair fame shall never be sullied while in their keeping. Hoping the multitude of the world may yet either the plantiff or a property at Colonel Lightner's request; received no consideration in conveying the property, and cannot rely upon the wrong of any one else. Motion overruled, and exception entered. Motion overruled, and exception entered. Motion overruled, and exception entered. The ledge was struck in the Lightner shaft on the libth of July, 1871, as near I recollect.

Cross-examination resumed—I received an order for stock in the Hermes that I should sullied while in their keeping. Hoping the multitude of the world may yet either of the vorld may yet either of the world was a grant of Government land with the property in the Hermes that I should be sufficiently applied to the world was a grant of Government land with the refugence of its splendor, I again in behalf of the company, through you, thank Mrs. Camp heartly thank her for her beauteous donation.

After the presentative of the frame of the charge of fraud, it could not be made good to the locators. It is held [author-sagranged the reacting thank her for her beauteous denation.

After the presentation dancing was resumed, until the march was played for supper, the different "laddies and their lasses" linking arms, were soon doing justice to the supurb display of "goodies" set for them by the well-known "chefs de cusine," Messys, Kelly and Donohoe, Wm. Bell acting as master of ceremonies, "All went merry as a marriage belle;" the dancing was kept up 'till daylight dawned. Those who attended will have cause to remember it with feeling of pleasure.

In this case it is said an agent shall not, if he discovers a defect in his principal's title, acquire the title to himself, directly or indirectly. It is not necessary, in applying the rule, that the principal should have an equitable right to the property—it is sufficient that he merely claims it. Equity will look with the same disfavor on titles thus acquired at any time after the acquisition as at the any time after the acquisition as at the moment of consummation. The adverse rights thus wrongfully and fraudently interposed have alone prevented our ac-interposed have alone prevented our acquiring patent to our property ere this, under the United States Mining Act.

[Here Judge Hardy, who has been very ill for some days, was forced to retire on account of exhaustion.]

Judge Lake succeeded Judge Hardy, saying that, in view of the elaborate argument and many authorities cited he now regretted they had not availed themselves of the full privileges of the argument. He spoke for about an hour, evincing, as he usually does, a profound knowledge of the elementary principles of law.

Judges Mesick and Garber will close the argument this morning.

BENEFIT TO JOHN S. LINDSAY. - Thursday night of this week is set apart for a benefit to Mr. John S. Lindsay, a promising young actor, and a gentleman who, by his courteous and urbane manners has by his courteens and uroane manners has made many friends in our midst. We hope it will be a great financial success, for a more worthy professional benefi-ciary has not yet solicited favor in Pioche. The bill being arranged for the occasion is full of interest, from top to bottom. Fill the house for Mr. Lind-

"LITTLE MAGGIE KNIGHT."-As an appreciation of the esteem in which Miss

MAHONEY .- The San Francisco Chroncle gives the following particulars of Mahoney accidentally shooting himself in San Francisco, just before Sheriff Travis caused his arrest in that city: "Yesterday morning a select party of men were seated around a table in a saloen on Jackson street, near Davis, engaged in playing 'push.' One of the players was a man nam d Lewis Mahony, who has in his day done the Statesome service—in San Quentin—for horse stealing. Mr. Mahoney attempted to draw a card from the bottom. The fraudulent effort was noticed by one of the others, who threatened to mash Mahoney. Therenpon the latter drew a revolver and swore he'd 'blow the top of any man's head clean off,' the sharp report of the pistol interrupted Mahoney's oration, and he suddenly began to how with pain. The accidental shark had pravidentially a pacel depression. tal shot had providentially ranged down ward and struck him in the snile." The Chronicle has a long account of Ma-honey's career, which shows him to the public as a genuine Dick Turpin.

THUMBO & DAVIS' VAPOR BATHS. These baths are intended for the relief or radical cure of nearly all the ills that flesh is heir to. They are beneficial and refreshing to all, healthy or unhealthy, the effect being thoroughly to open the pores of the skin and cleans the system of all impurities. And that they are an effectual cure for some affectious the writer can testify, he had been suffering for account days from neurologia. fering for several days from neuralgia in the face, and all pain d sappeared in a few hours after the first ministration. They can be procured by calling at the lodging-house of Mrs. Christy, Upper Main street.

THEATER TO-NIGHT .- The programme to be presented to-night, at the complimentary benefit to be given Miss Maggie Knight, is one that cannot fail to attract Ruight, is one that cannot fail to attract a large audience. The original drama of "Irish Assurance and Yankee Modesty," together with the farce entitled "Per-fection," will be performed. Maggie appers in her great Chinese act, and Harry Lorraine spices the interlude with song and dance. Go early and secure your seats.

CHICKEN THIEVES ABOUT .- For some time past, roost marauders have been "on the fly" in Pioche. Last Saturday night they paid a visit to the hen-house of Mrs. Irwin who keeps the "What Cheer House," lower Main street, and Cheer House," lower Main street, and netariously gathered in a dozen of her fattest hens. We confidently hope that these, the meanest of thieves may at their next onslaught, be received with a charge of shot that may act as a reminder to all, that the "way of the transgressor is hard."

DISGRACEPUL DISTURBANCE. - Sunday night, a set of drunken brawls in saloon on upper Main street, succeeded in making night hideous, by indulging in a series of fights, accompanied by blasphemy and expressions of lewdness, disgusting and discordant. Judging by the appearance of the front door, one of the weaker combatants must have taken a flying leap for liberty, or been ejected by powers over which he had no immediate control. We have not heard of any arrests being made.

MURPHY'S BOOT AND SHOE MANUFAC-TORY .- James Murphy's boot and shoe manufactory, on Meadow Valley street, next door to Lynch's chop house, has been handsomely fitted up, and is now in good shape for business. Mr. Murphy has an enviable reputation for his supe-rior workmanship on fine boots, and in other branches of work in his line, he has the best of workmen employed. His stock of French and other leathers is abundant to fill all orders.

RETURNED. - Mr. Hussey and troupe arrived from Bullionville last Sunday. They report their engagement a success, and speak in terms of praise of all whom they met. Mr. Hussey contemplates opening the theater the coming week; the first part of each performance to be specially a minstrel entertainment. He has our best wishes.

A Wond or Cauriox .- A pan of ashes were yesterday emptied out in the rear

Charles C. Going, who died here some-time last December. Anyone who can impart information concerning his death will greatly oblige a sorrowing family by writing to J. B. Brown, Plac-erville, California. THAT SUPPER. The supper, prepared for the Hose Company at Kelly & Donahoe's Restaurant, was one of the most finished in variety of eatables and deli-cacy of make-up. For taste in a display of that kind they have few superiors. We take pleasure in commending them to the public.

NEW BREWERY. - Messrs. Kiesele & Leary have opened a new brewery on lower Main street, where the best of lager is dispensed. Large additions will be made to the present building shortly. Father Kiesele, the senior member of the firm, is an old Hamiltonian. He merits a liberal support.

More Fariour.-It seems almost impossible to accout for the uses made of the loads of freight constantly arriving. Yesterday the merchants along Main street from Lacour to this office were stowing case after case, of all kinds and qualities, of their different wares. Their ideas of flush times to come must be exalted; and we trust they may not be disappointed.

THE COUNTY JAIL. - There are at present eight inmates of the jail, snuffing the breezes which waft themselves through the corridor of this institution. They are as follows: 2 for petit larceny; 1 for attempt to commit rape; 1 awaiting trial for forgery; 2 for being drunk; and 2 for disturbing the peace.

New Goods .- At the old stand of Jacob Cohn, next door below the bank

VOLUNTEERED.-The new brass band, under the leadership of P. E. Flannagan volunteered their services for the ben-efit of the Firemen's ball. Though but a few months in practice, they discours-ed music of a very high order.

J. R. Nonron has purchased the estab lishment of Mr. Goodrich, in Bristel District. Mr. Norton intends to establish a first-class boarding-house and saloon, which latter will be well supplied with the best of wines and liquurs, direct from San Francisco, over which he will preside himself, while the cuinnary department of the boarding-house will be conducted by that cook of all cooks, San Debart, formerly of the Cosmopolitan Hotel at San Francisco. Mrs. J. R. Norton will have supervision of the boarding department. No Chinaman will be allowed about the premises. Those who have occasion to premises. Those who have occasion to visit Bristol D strict will do well to convince themselves that the accommoda-tions and fare offered by Mr. Norton, are second to none in Southern Nevada
